Cohen's Lottery & Exchange-Office."HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, Oct 29th, 1818.

The $50,000 sold at Cohen's.

As we anticipated, we have the pleasure to announce the distribution of the great Cash Capital of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS drawn yesterday afternoon in the Masonic Hall Lottery.—It came up to No. 7966, and was sold at Cohen's Office, to a gentleman in this City, who purchased the ticket in May last—being additional evidence not only of the continued and astonishing luck attending this Office but also of the success of early investments. The Masonic Hall Lottery will be completed in the course of a week, and on the closing of which, we have the satisfaction of having disposed of the highest, as well as other important prizes, thus continuing the grounds of having sold MORE CAPITALS THAN ANY OTHER OFFICE IN AMERICA.

The New-York Gazette of the 24th has the following paragraph :

IMPORTANT.

We have it from authority which we deem next to official, that our differences with the Court of Madrid are SETTLED.—The Floridas are OURS, and our government is to pay the American claims against Spain.

*From the New-York National Advocate.COMMODORE PERRY & CAPT. HEATH.

The unfortunate dispute between these two gentlemen has been the subject of various comment, and has excited considerable interest throughout the union.

A meeting took place on the 19th inst. on the Jersey shore, when Com. Perry received the fire of Capt. Heath, without injury—reserving his fire, and refusing, at the same time, to exercise said right; and Capt. Heath, satisfied at this gallant and magnanimous atonement, the parties thus honourably terminated this unpleasant difference, which, we trust, will hereafter be buried in oblivion.

Statement of the proceedings growing out of the altercation between Commodore Perry and Captain Heath.

Commodore Perry, in consequence of having received a communication from captain Heath in Rhode-Island, on which the civil authorities of that state prevented him from acting, was induced to go on to Washington on the 10th of October for the purpose of giving to captain Heath the satisfaction which he had demanded. The absence of his previously engaged friend, commodore Decatur, whom he had passed on the road, rendered it necessary that he should resort to the intervention of another friend for a time, that the intention of his visit might be communicated to captain Heath. This was accordingly done, and the following preliminary arrangements were agreed upon between major Hamilton, on the part of commodore Perry, and lieut. Desha, on the part of captain Heath :

1st. It is understood that Com. Perry is to proceed to Philadelphia, or its vicinity, by the route of Baltimore, where he is to remain until the arrival of Capt. Heath's friend.

2d. That Capt. Heath is to proceed by the way of Frederick and York to Philadelphia, and to remain in the suburbs until the arrangements are made for a meeting between himself and Com. Perry—his name not to be on the stage bills.

3d. Lieut. Desha and Major Hamilton are to meet at Renshaw's on Wednesday after the arrival of the Newcastle boat.

4th. That the meeting between Com. Perry and Capt. Heath is to take place on Saturday morning, or as soon as practicable.

Washington City, Oct. 12, 1818.

Endorsed on this preliminary arrangement was the following note.

Capt. Perry desires it to be expressly understood, that in according to Capt. Heath the personal satisfaction he has demanded, he has been influenced entirely by a sense of what he considers due from him as an atonement to the violated rules of the service, and not by any considerations of the claims which capt. Heath may have for making such a demand, which he totally denies, as such claims have been forfeited by the measures of a public character which capt. Heath has adopted towards him. If, therefore, the civil authority should produce an impossibility of a meeting at the time and place designated, which he will take every precaution to prevent, he will consider himself absolutely exonerated from any responsibility to Capt. Heath touching their present cause of difference.

(Signed)

J. HAMILTON, Jun.
for Captain Perry.
